

Each day, it's true,
the pull is strong,
To give our kids a screen
before too long...

During meals:
Instead of a screen,
why not
chat and dream?

On the go:
Instead of a screen,
why not hum or sing?

Fewer screens to fill their days
More sweet moments and play!

In the waiting room:
Instead of a screen,
why not scribble or
doodle a bloom?

Before going to bed:
Instead of a screen, why
not spin a tale
instead?

Skip the screen,
let's talk and play,
In every tongue—
we'll want to stay!
